November 10, 2024 | Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kgs 17:10-16 | Heb 9:24-28 | Mk 12:38-44 or 12:41-44

Written by
THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“Give it your all! Leave it all on the field! Trust in your training/preparation/coaches.” We’ve all heard a version of this type of exhortation. It requires a great amount of confidence and trust – faith, if you will – to let go of our doubt and fears. The two widows of today’s readings had such confidence, as they offer us heroic examples of faith. The widow of Zarephath uses her only remaining food to cook for Elijah. She did this after receiving God’s promise that, “The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry.” The widow had the assurance that God would sustain her, and she lived by it – trusting she could give her all, because with God’s help there would be more. Likewise, the widow in the Gospel could make an offering to the temple treasury because of her limitless confidence in God: she gave “her whole livelihood.” From that moment, she would have nothing to sustain her but God’s providential care. By their unreserved acts of generosity, both women consented to rely on God in the most absolute sense. And in so doing, they silently proclaimed their faith in the personal and unconditional love that God had for each of them.

REFLECT

Choose one aspect of your life you can mentally “reframe” in order to see it not as a lack but as an opportunity to cast yourself more fully on God. Spend 15 minutes this week speaking to God about this. If you can, thank him for the chance to draw closer to him. If it is too difficult to thank him for your trial, ask him to help you see and appreciate how he is leading you along this path of greater intimacy with him.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

So deeply did these two women believe in God’s goodness that they were able to act without fear. Confident in his love, they could give to the point of having nothing left. They, literally, “gave it all that they had.” Rather than being burdensome, however, their surrender was the basis of their relationship with God and therefore, it was a much greater treasure than material goods. This message is clearly at odds with the notion that possessions and wealth are the basis of happiness. By rejecting this idea, giving generously of ourselves and trusting God to sustain us, we gain more than we could ever give up. Like the widow whose jar never runs dry, when we fill our lives with what God offers and not what the world offers, we live with abundance.

XXXII Domenica del Tempo Ordinario

L’episodio della povera vedova che offre a Dio tutto quanto aveva per vivere non propone solo un modello di generosa carità; Gesù, puntando l’attenzione su di lei, ci rivela il mistero dello sguardo di Dio che va al di là delle apparenze, penetra nei cuori e ne legge i moti più autentici.

All Soul's Day

During the month of November, we remember our loved ones who are not with us today. Since the early Church, Christians have prayed for the dead. By the 14th century, the commemoration had spread through Europe and was universally accepted in the Latin

Church. "Happy are those who have died in the Lord. Let them rest from their labours for their good deeds go with them." Revelation 14: 13

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord. May they rest in peace. If you would like to remember your loved ones during this month, please complete the "All Souls" envelopes and remit in the box located on the side of the altar. The envelopes will be placed on the altar for the whole month of November as we offer our daily Masses for the faithful departed.

Living with Christ Sunday Missal 2024- 2025: Sunday Missals will no longer be kept in the pews. They will be available for sale at $7 each. They will be sold in the foyer of the church every weekend after the Masses.

Christmas Bazaar: On Saturday, December 7th, we will have our annual Christmas Bazaar and Spaghetti Dinner in our parish hall from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. We are in need of the following gently used items: dishes, china, toys, crystal, new clothing, jewelry, knitted items, small appliances, decorative items. We will not accept furniture, Christmas Trees or TVs. Baked goods will also be appreciated. The hall will be 10:00 am to 3:00 pm on Friday, December 6th for drop-off. Please do not leave items in the foyer of the Church. We are also looking for vendors! If you are interested to sell at our Bazaar, please call the office for more details on how to rent a table.

Mass Intentions for 2025: We will be receiving Mass intentions for 2025 beginning November 20th during the office hours. Office hours on November 20th are 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Mass intentions will also be received via email or phone.

Inizieremo a scrivere le intenzioni delle messe per l'anno nuovo il 20 novembre. Per favore venite durante tempo di ufficio dalle 9:00 alle 14:00.
